

Address Change Notification to Canada Revenue Agency – Individuals

If you file your income tax return with an address change using an electronic filer, your address will be updated with the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) on filing.

If your move occurs around the same time as filing your personal income taxes, then your address will be updated upon E-filing your income tax return. Otherwise, you should contact the CRA using one of the methods below so that you can continue to receive mail, payments, and other notices from the CRA without delay.

Methods available to change your address with CRA:

1. Online
2. By phone
3. By mail or fax

Online

If you have registered with the My Account service with CRA, you can change your address by logging into your account or by using the MyCRA mobile app.

By phone

Phone CRA Individual Income Tax Enquiries at 1-800-959-8281.

You will need information from your most recent income tax return to prove your identity as well as your name, SIN, birthdate, mailing address CRA has on file, etc.

By mail

Complete form RC325 or write a letter including the following information:

- Signature
- SIN
- New address
- Date of your move

Send the complete form or letter to your individual and benefits processing tax centre:
