Child Care Expenses

- Receipts showing information about the services provided and amounts paid for:
- day nursery schools and daycare centres;
 - educational institutions, for the part of the fees that relate to child care services;
 - day camps and day sports schools where the primary goal of the camp is to care for children (an institution offering a sports study program is not a sports school); or
 - boarding schools, overnight sports schools, or camps where lodging is involved
- Name, mailing address and Social Insurance Number for child care services provided by an individual:
- You may have payroll and T4 filing requirements for payments to an individual care provider who provided care in your home
 - Fees paid to the following individuals are not eligible child care expenses:
 - The child's father or mother
 - Your spouse or common-law partner, if you are the father or the mother of the eligible child
 - A dependent for whom you are claiming a tax credit
 - A person under 18 years of age who is related to you
